Summit Programme

WELCOME TO SINGAPORE

The Norwegian Business Association (Singapore) is pleased to host the seventh edition of the Norway-Asia Business Summit. The event will take place in Singapore 16-18 April 2018.

As always, the Summit will present opportunities for Norwegian companies across Asia, as well as for colleagues coming from Norway. Hence, an important focus for the Summit is how political and economic trends will impact the business climate for Norwegian businesses operating locally in Asian countries.

Norway-Asia Business Summit creates and further develops relations between Norwegian and Asian businesses and their partners. We expect participation from high-level industry representatives, academics, journalists, politicians and government representatives. The summit aims to strengthen the competitiveness of Norwegian businesses in Asia through increased knowledge of political and economic trends, as well as market development in the region.

The aim is to create a top-notch Summit focusing on competitiveness and opportunities for Norwegian companies in the region.

The summit takes place at the iconic Fullerton Hotel. The hotel is a waterfront landmark and often described as "one of the most iconic colonial buildings" which has defined Singapore's skyline since the 1920s. The stunning Fullerton building is situated by the Singapore River and well positioned in the Central Business District.
